MEMORIES FROM STONE AGE

THEN Wodonga Shire president Les Stone was a very happy man when The Border Mail took this photograph.

Can you guess why? Or what made that year such a significant one for Wodonga?

After the popularity of last week's online gallery of archival images of Albury's Dean Street, today we present a new selection documenting the changing face of Wodonga.

The gallery includes photographs from as far back as the early 1900s.

Simply go online to bordermail.com.au to see Wodonga's past come to life — and find out just what had pleased Les Stone so much.
