Royal Party on tour

Dear Chief Minister,

At the conclusion of The Duke of Edinburgh's visit to the Northern Territory, His Royal Highness has asked me to write to you as the Chief Minister to thank you and your Administration for all the help which they gave to him personally throughout his visit.

Inevitably a major conference such as the Royal Agricultural Society of the Commonwealth's one in Darwin does mean a great deal of extra work for a number of individuals but when it includes a senior Member of the Royal Family things become much more complicated.

The help and advice provided by Doug Gibbons and his staff has been most welcome and of exceptional value. That and the other material support provided both to HRH and the Conference delegates has undoubtedly been a major factor in the success of the Conference.

Perhaps you would be kind enough to convey Prince Philip's particular thanks to all those involved.

Yours sincerely,
Miles Hunt-Davis

The Honourable Shane Stone, Q.C., M.L.A., Chief Minister of the Northern Territory
