

Then a model of poise

The prospect of mounting the catwalk before a sizeable audience caused nine-year-old Lisa Ebeling, more than a moment's concern yesterday.

But, when it came to her turn, Lisa carried it off in fine style.

She was taking part in mannequin parade at the Wodonga Primary School's annual fete.

to a slight attack on the fingernails.

ABOVE: But by the end of the walk, Lisa was a model of composure.

Wodonga's mayor, Cr Les Stone, who is