Dear Commander Stone

In response to your request, I am pleased to advise that the Director Navy People Career Management Agency has granted you privileges after the end of service with effect 05 March 2019.

As a former serving officer in the RAN you may use the honorary title of CMDR RAN (Rtd) and you may wear uniform appropriate to this title at occasions such as parades, funerals and ANZAC Day ceremonies. If you wish to wear uniform on other occasions it is appropriate for you to seek approval from Navy Strategic Command before doing so.

You are required to inform NPCMA should your contact details change or you desire to have your privileges removed. To do so it is requested that you email DNPCMA Correspondence Cell: dnpcma.correspondence@defence.gov.au. Due to the volume of correspondence received, any paper correspondence will not receive a reply however email correspondence will receive an acknowledgement of receipt.

Please find enclosed your Certificate of Service. If you have any queries concerning this certificate please contact me via email at NPCMA.Separations@defence.gov.au. Should you have any concerns regarding medals and awards please contact the Directorate of Honours and Awards on 1800 333 362.

I thank you for your valuable contribution to the Navy during your many years of dedicated service and wish you well with your future endeavours.

Yours sincerely

Keith McLackland
