Dear SBLT Stone,

I am pleased to advise you that as a result of your recent appearance before the Regional Selection Board, a recommendation that you be appointed as a General Service Officer in the Army Reserve has been forwarded to the Military Secretary in Canberra for approval. Your expected rank on appointment will be that of Lieutenant (probationary) in the Royal Australian Infantry. The probationary rank will be confirmed once you have completed certain training requirements.

You should at this stage now submit your resignation from the RANR. Your date of resignation should be stated as being the day prior to appointment into the Army Reserve. Army Office and Navy Office will co-ordinate the actual dates.

The spirit which prompted your interest in the Army Reserve is very much appreciated and I wish you all the best for the future.

Yours sincerely,

B.M. KEMP
Colonel
Commander
